NOTE

Cyprus: President Makarios is again publicly calling for revision of the Cypriot constitution and termination of the treaty of guarantee--signed with Britain, Greece, and Turkey in 1960. The treaty and all significant articles of the constitution are basic parts of the 1959 Greek-Turkish agreement which ended four years of guerrilla warfare on Cyprus. Since the Turkish Cypriots and Ankara will strongly oppose revision or abrogation of this agreement, and since Makarios can expect little support from Athens, he may try to bring the issue before the UN, presenting his case as one involving a struggle against "colonialist" limitations on Cyprus' independence.
